 TEACH is an all volunteer, non profit 501(c)3 organization that serves Connecticut Homeschoolers. Throughout the year these volunteers dedicate their time to provide the homeschooling community with valuable resources such as the annual convention. Expenses often exceed the income we receive in the form of membership dues and the nominal convention admission fees. Your donation would enable TEACH to continue to minister to CT homeschoolers. Our desire is to bring glory to God and honor our Lord Jesus Christ through the services we provide and the fellowship we share with other homeschoolers. We hope the services available to you are both helpful and inspirational. Please consider using this web site to glean what you need, attend the convention, and connect with a local support group. We welcome any tax deductible contributions you would like to make to this vital organization. Thank you and God bless you!*
